Daniel Island Trail

You will cross a trio of long boardwalk bridges over beautiful tidal marsh.

Summary

The beautiful Daniel Island Trail is a family favorite! This multi-use path traces the east side of Daniel Island along the Wando River. You'll walk on several boardwalks that cross tidal marsh, wind through Low Country maritime forest habitats, see giant live oaks, pass by children's play areas and see a variety of wildlife (egrets, herons, dolphins). Don't miss this easy stroll on one of the area's most popular planned island communities.

Difficulty

Easy.

Distance

1.4 miles of trail, can be out-and-back walk, or variety of distances.

Time

Varies, 30 minutes to 1.5 hours.

Trail Surface

Variety of surfaces; boardwalks, dirt, sand, crushed gravel, concrete.

Enjoy a little island life on this family favorite multi-use path!

Crowds Moderate to heavy. This is one of the most popular family trails in the Berkeley Outdoor Life program.

Fees/Permits None.

Precautions: When crossing through the maritime forest sections, biting insects can be formidable in the warmer months. Bring insect repellent. There are warnings that alligators could be in the area.

Parking Governor's Park, 165 Fairbanks Oak Alley, Daniel Island, SC 29492. This is also parking for Governor's Park off Seven Farms Drive.
